TEA ON MEMORY LANE

The Tea was deemed a great success by attendees and volunteers alike. Special guests, George Washington, and musician, Danny Hook, provided entertainment. Thanks to Danny, the event had sound equipment and a microphone for announcements. He also donated homemade bread for the raffles. After expenses of $986.42, the Club netted a profit of $720.42. Total income from ticket sales, raffles, and donations was $1,706.84.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Get to Know Your
TREASURER/MEMBERSHIP CHAIR
Angie Wrzesinski

Angie and her husband, Mike, moved to Camano Island from Lynden in 2017. They have 3 very accomplished adult children and 3 dogs. Angie worked her entire adult life in the accounting and clerical field, retiring from her last position at the Whatcom County Tourism Office in Bellingham. Having emigrated from The Netherlands with her family when she was 8 years old she still loves to talk Dutch and share her heritage with family and friends. She currently serves on the Lincoln Hill Retirement Community Board of Directors as well as being the Treasurer of both the CIWRC and the Camano Shores Community Club. Angie also volunteers at church functions, gardens, and hopes to do more traveling with Mike in the near future.

NO MEETINGS IN JULY OR AUGUST

 DONATE *****

Caring for America is an important function of our Club. The Club's current project is the Stanwood Lincoln Hill Retirement Community Center. If you would like to volunteer at their reception desk - answer the phone, welcome visitors or assist with other activities - call Darlene Campbell, their Volunteer Coordinator on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 360-502-6467. You can also call Angie Wrzesinski, 360-815-5817 if you have donations to bring to the June meeting. They need ground coffee (no k-pods), liquid and powder creamers, sugar packets, disposable coffee cups, cocktail napkins, snack bars, mints, cookies (pre-wrapped), teabags, coffee flavors (liquid bottles), stirrers, and Clorox wipes.
